

Allusions

Write an allusion appropriate for each scenario.

1)

Grandpa leads a simple, strict, and frugal life. He doesn't use anything that makes life easier, let alone pleasant or luxurious. He sleeps on a hard bed and simply can't live a day without putting in a lot of hard work on something. Ben offered to buy him a phone the other day so he could stay in touch with his friends, but Grandpa said no. He has denied himself access

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

2)

sound bothered and said it was such a beautiful day. She believes that life is essentially about good things and the things that we think or say are bad are intrinsically good and will soon turn good. Her friends say Irene's optimism is sometimes blind, unreasonable, and illogical.

---

---