

Commonly Confused Words

“Accept” is a verb that means “to take something offered” or “to recognize you’re responsible for something”.

Example: The mailman said, “Please accept my apology for being late.”

“Except” is both a preposition and conjunction, and it introduces the only person, thing, or fact that’s not included in the main statement.

Example: The mailman delivered the letters to everyone except Maria.

Com 1) 2) 3) 4) 5) 6)

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- 7) Anthony was willing to _____ the challenge.
- 8) The vending machine will _____ only coins.
- 9) Susan hardly ventured outside, _____ when the groceries ran out.
- 10) Grandpa didn’t eat anything _____ fruit and vegetables.