

Commonly Confused Words

“Everyday” is an adjective that means “common or not interesting”.

Example: Sally uses many idioms in her everyday conversations.

“Every day” is an adverbial phrase that means “each day”.

Example: Nancy wakes up at 7 every day.

Complete each sentence with “everyday” or “every day” as appropriate.

- 1) Emma couldn't find her _____ clothes in the closet.
- 2) Jessica goes for a two-mile run _____ .
- 3) Miley happily helped Mom do the _____ chores.
- 4) The kids play the violin _____ after coming back from school.
- 5) The story abounds with humor inspired from _____ life.
- 6) Mathew reports to work _____ at 8 a.m.
- 7) Carla watered the plants _____ .
- 8) These plates are for _____ use.
- 9) We stopped by the convenience store to buy _____ essentials.
- 10) Ken rides his bike _____ in the afternoon.