

Commonly Confused Words

“Lose” is a verb, and it means “to no longer have a person/thing/a positive quality” or “not to win”.

Example: You will fall if you lose your footing.

As an adjective, “loose” means “not firmly fixed”, “readily available”, or “not precise”. As a verb, it means “to let/make loose”.

Example: Randall pulled his tie loose.

Cor

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com e.

- 7) The wheel fell off the wagon because the bolts were _____.
- 8) If you don't play every day, you'll _____ your edge.
- 9) Ten prisoners have broken _____ and are on the run.
- 10) Dad will _____ the horse's reins.