

First Conditionals

First conditional – Main clause: future simple or imperative

If/When clause: present simple

Example: If I eat (ate/eat) all this food now, I will get (will get, would get) really sick.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- Choose the correct form of the verb in brackets.
- 1) V (correct) my essay if you will correct (correct/you will correct) my essay.
  - 2) I will buy (buy/will buy) Mom a gift if she goes (went/goes) to the store today.
  - 3) V (go) to the store today if she goes (went/goes) to the store today.
  - 4) If you will call (call/will call) her, you will tell (you will tell/tell) her to wait at the café.
  - 5) Catherine will buy (will buy/buy) Mom a gift if she goes (went/goes) to the store today.
  - 6) If Amelia will call (will call/calls), you will tell (you will tell/tell) her to wait at the café.