

Third Conditionals

Third conditional – Main clause: Would have/Could have with past participle

If clause: Past perfect

Example: If your alarm clock hadn't rung, what would have happened?

I would have missed the bus if my alarm clock hadn't rung.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Use
con

1) If

2) H

3) W

4) If we hadn't invited you out, what could you have done?

5) Where could you have stayed if you hadn't found any accommodation?

6) What would you have worn if you had known about the party?