

Demonstrative Determiners

Demonstrative determiners are used to indicate if the person or thing is near or far. The "near" demonstratives are this and these, and the "far" demonstratives are that and those.

Example: Look at those shiny shoes!

Complete each sentence using the correct demonstrative from the parentheses.

- 1) Margaret used _____ glitter pens to create her wall sticker. (those/ this)
- 2) We found _____ colorful seashells under that rock. (this/ these)
- 3) I left my baseball bat under _____ tree. (that/ those)
- 4) I really like _____ song. (this/ these)
- 5) _____ mountains are beautiful, aren't they? (This/ Those)
- 6) Derek hid _____ broken pencil behind his shelf. (that/ these)
- 7) Let them carry _____ decorations upstairs. (those/ these)
- 8) I'll ask Danny to pack _____ box quickly. (this/ that)
- 9) I want to buy _____ gift for my mother's birthday. (this/ that)
- 10) Each of _____ bags contains a magic potion. (those/ these)