

Double Negatives

Check the sentence that's free from a double negative in each set.

- 1) a) Olivia had hardly no time to study for the chemistry test.
b) Olivia had hardly enough time to study for the chemistry test.

- 2) a) The board didn't see no reason to reject the new proposal.

- 3) a) The board didn't see no reason to reject the new proposal.

- 4) a) The board didn't see no reason to reject the new proposal.

- 5) a) The board didn't see no reason to reject the new proposal.

- 6) a) Tanya hadn't bought nothing from the store on her way back.
b) Tanya had bought nothing from the store on her way back.

- 7) a) Mabel couldn't hardly wait for Christmas to arrive.
b) Mabel could hardly wait for Christmas to arrive.

- 8) a) The Smiths hadn't lived nowhere outside the country before.
b) The Smiths hadn't lived anywhere outside the country before.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com