

Fact and Opinion

Identify whether the statements are facts or opinions and color the appropriate circles.

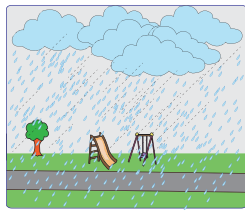

1) 	The woman is a doctor.  <input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion	2) 	The girl's ponytail looks great.  <input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

5) 	<input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion		<input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------

7) 	It is raining heavily.  <input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion	8) 	The shirt and tie suit the man.  <input type="radio"/> Fact <input type="radio"/> Opinion
---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------