

Active and Passive Voice

The difference between the active and passive revolves around the subject and verb of a sentence. When the subject is performing the verb, that is active voice. When the verb is performed upon the subject, that is passive voice.

Example: The garage is being cleaned by us.

We are cleaning the garage.

Change the sentences into active voice.

1) The song was beautifully sung by Katie.

2) Mark's order will be delivered by the courier company.

3) The spelling bee competition was won by a girl from Memphis.

4) The contract will be signed by all employees

5) Mom changed the flat tire.

6) The store was opened by Kevin at 9 a.m.

7) Scott had been given a lot of money by Uncle Matt.
