

Possessive Adjectives

A possessive adjective is an adjective such as "your" or "our" that tells who or what something is connected to or belongs to.

Example: Dad bought me this toy for Easter. This is my toy.

Underline the possessive adjectives.

- 1) We bought this house last week. This is our house.
- 2) This garden belongs to me. This is my garden.
- 3) Alex got married in August. This is his wife.
- 4) Shelly has a new dog. I'm going to see her dog.
- 5) The dog stepped on the glass and hurt its paw.
- 6) I can't remember where I left my purse.
- 7) It's time for bed, Nelson. Put your toys away.
- 8) Every country has its cultural identity.