

Predicate Adjectives

A predicate adjective is an adjective that follows a linking verb and describes the subject of the sentence.

Predicate
noun

Predicate
adjective

Example: Catherine looks dazzling in the new dress.

Identify the highlighted parts as predicate nouns or predicate adjectives.

Color the predicate nouns with a yellow highlighter and the predicate adjectives with a blue highlighter.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- 1) Kevin finally became a lawyer.
- 2) Patrick is a musician.
- 3) The two houses appeared identical.
- 4) My brother is a mathematician.