

Main Clauses

Identify the two independent clauses in each sentence, and list them below.

Example: Ray went to the counter, and he bought a first-class ticket to Venice.

Ray went to the counter

He bought a first-class ticket to Venice.

1) Dan could troubleshoot the problem, but he couldn't resolve it.

2) Carl knew all the answers, yet he failed to respond to the questions.

3) It feels very warm here, for we get plenty of sunshine.

4) Ed doesn't remember meeting this lady before, nor do I.

5) Are you particular about a condo, or are you happy with an apartment?

6) My parents love the mountains, so they often take a vacation in Taos.

Main Clauses

Answer key

Identify the two independent clauses in each sentence, and list them below.

Example: Ray went to the counter, and he bought a first-class ticket to Venice.

Ray went to the counter

He bought a first-class ticket to Venice.

1) Dan could troubleshoot the problem, but he couldn't resolve it.

Dan could troubleshoot the problem.

He couldn't resolve the problem.

2) Carl knew all the answers, yet he failed to respond to the questions.

Carl knew all the answers.

He failed to respond to the questions.

3) It feels very warm here, for we get plenty of sunshine.

It feels very warm here.

We get plenty of sunshine.

4) Ed doesn't remember meeting this lady before, nor do I.

Ed doesn't remember meeting this lady before.

I don't remember meeting this lady before.

5) Are you particular about a condo, or are you happy with an apartment?

Are you particular about a condo?

Are you happy with an apartment?

6) My parents love the mountains, so they often take a vacation in Taos.

My parents love the mountains.

They often take a vacation in Taos.