

Prepositions

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that contains a preposition, its object, and its modifiers. It usually modifies a noun or a verb. It is called an adjective phrase when it modifies a noun, and it is known as an adverb phrase when it adds details to a verb.

Example: The cat jumped off the counter.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- Und
- 1)
  - 2)
  - 3)
  - 4)
  - 5)
  - 6) The bridge is under construction.
  - 7) Sheila watched the movie with her friends.
  - 8) Coby got the job despite his inexperience.
  - 9) Melanie's house is for sale.
  - 10) We walked along the beach collecting shells.