

Prepositions of Time

A preposition is a word placed before a noun, a pronoun, or a noun phrase, and it shows the relation between two elements in a sentence. Prepositions express a relation of position, direction, time, manner, agent, etc.

Example: I met Susan before the party.

Underline the preposition in each sentence.

- 1) The bus will reach Lexington Avenue by midnight.
- 2) Jerry grows berries during summer.
- 3) It has been raining for two hours.
- 4) Paula will do the dishes after lunch.
- 5) I have been in Florida since last year.
- 6) The kid waited until his mother came.
- 7) Ferdinand will be here in the first week of March.
- 8) Sharon will be in the library at five o'clock.
- 9) The ship will set sail on the 4th of July.
- 10) Galileo invented the telescope in the year 1609.

