

Commas

Commas are used to separate items in a list or to indicate a pause in a sentence.

Example: Mary went to the movies with Ed Tina and Alvin.

Mary went to the movies with Ed, Tina, and Alvin.

Rewrite the sentences, and add commas wherever required.

1) Kenny likes apples bananas oranges and strawberries.

2) My mom invited Sam Louise and Liam for my birthday party.

3) The Hamptons have been to Sydney London and Brazil.

4) Polly saw polar bears flamingoes snakes and monkeys at the zoo.

5) Would you like to go to the mall zoo or beach?

6) Giraffes have long legs long necks and long tongues.

7) Although he was late Allan didn't miss the lesson.

8) Hillary cooked dinner and Hanna did the chores.
