

Simple Future Tense

---

The simple future tense expresses an action that hasn't happened yet or a state that doesn't exist yet.

Example: I will call you tonight. (call)

Complete each sentence with the simple future form of the verb in parentheses.

- 1) Jake _____ you to school tomorrow. (drive)
- 2) Fifth-grade students _____ in the science fair. (participate)
- 3) Vivian _____ us with the decorations. (not help)
- 4) The airplane to Texas _____ off in ten minutes. (take)
- 5) Joanne and Rhea _____ in Portland next week. (be)
- 6) Gwen _____ early today. (sleep)
- 7) Susan _____ art lessons anymore. (not give)
- 8) The meteorologist said, "It _____ tomorrow." (rain)
- 9) Heather _____ on time for the meeting. (not arrive)
- 10) Francis _____ his house next month. (sell)