

Modal Verbs

Modal verbs are helping verbs that help express specific conditions such as necessity, ability, and willingness. Examples of modal verbs include may, might, must, can, could, should, and will.

Example: We must take a taxi.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Und

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7) If Dad were here, he would fix my bike.

8) You must be fluent in French to apply for this job.

9) Can you type this document for me?

10) You should carry an umbrella.