

Linking Verbs and Subjects

---

A linking verb connects the subject to a noun or an adjective in the predicate.

Example: Vance and Brent are cousins.

Circle the linking verb and underline the subject that it links in each sentence.

- 1) The Wonderful Wizard of Oz is an interesting book.
- 2) The baby seemed a bit cranky.
- 3) Neither Evan nor his sister was present.
- 4) The octopus weighed 33 lb.
- 5) Frank appears upset about his scores.
- 6) The green bean casserole smells delicious.
- 7) The fruit looked fresh.
- 8) The tourists are dismayed at the discouraging weather forecast.
- 9) The roads became dangerous after the intense winter storm.
- 10) Reece is a law student.

