Inferences

Read the details of each place, draw an inference, and write where the person is/was.

1) I walked into this place and immediately knew that kids will love this place. Every nook and cranny was stuffed with toy cars, plush toys, dolls, board games, puzzles, and a lot more.
   Where was I?

   _____

2) It was a dark, scary night. Silence reigned around the abandoned building. Gravestones stood everywhere. I opened the creaky door, and everything appeared cloaked in mystery. The entryway was filled with sticky spider webs. I knew what the words "eerie" and "spooky" meant.
   Where was I?

   _____

3) People were relaxing with their friends and families. I saw tourists enjoy surfing and swimming. Children were busy collecting seashells and building sandcastles. Wherever I looked, I could see only sand and water.
   Where was I?

   _____

4) It was a garden where plants are collected and cultivated. I could find all varieties of plants: ornamental plants, desert plants, exotic plants, you name it. Never before had plants mattered more to me.
