

Difference between Living and Nonliving Things

---

Sort the characteristic cards into living things and nonliving things and glue them under the correct categories.

Living Things	Nonliving Things

Difference between Living and Nonliving Things

---

They require nutrition.

They cannot reproduce.

They cannot breathe.

They require food, air, and water.

They respond to stimuli.

They can breathe.

They do not require nutrition.

They do not respond to stimuli.

They grow.

They do not grow.

They do not require food, air, or water.

They produce young ones of their own kind.