

Long O

Print the worksheet on cardstock. Cut out the fluency strips, and practice reading the long “o” sounds.

1) Joe is alone at home, so he eats toast and jam for breakfast.

2) Rose slipped and broke her nose.

3) Leo has hidden the globe, and no one knows where it is.

4) Although Aunt Posy is growing old, she is still as bold as ever.

5) The melodious sound of the piano floated out through the open window.

6) All roads lead to Rome.

7) Both Fiona and her brother loathe tomatoes and potatoes.

8) The sparrow was holding a yellow leaf in its beak.