

Natural Resources

Shade the renewable resources green and the non-renewable resources red.

Sunlight: Light and warmth that come from the sun during the day

Trees: Tall plants that provide wood for construction and oxygen for breathing

Wind

Oil: A

Fossil

Water

Solar

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Natural gas: A type of fossil fuel used for heating and cooking

Geothermal energy: Heat from deep inside the Earth that can be used to generate electricity

Coal: A black rock burned to produce electricity in power plants