

The Preamble to the U.S. Constitution

The Preamble of the United States Constitution is a powerful and essential introduction to the document that forms the foundation of our nation. It outlines the purpose and goals of the Constitution, setting the stage for the principles

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

The Constitution is created by and for the people. It highlights the democratic nature of the government.

"in Order to form a more perfect Union:" This part expresses the desire to create a unified and harmonious country. It acknowledges that the earlier form of government under the Articles of Confederation had flaws and needed improvement.

The Preamble to the U.S. Constitution

"establish Justice:" Justice is a central principle in the Preamble. It emphasizes the importance of a fair and equitable legal system.

"insure domestic Tranquility:" This phrase underscores the need for peace and stability within the nation.

Preview

Become a member to unlock
unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

In summary, the Preamble of the United States Constitution outlines the fundamental purposes of the government, including the establishment of justice, the promotion of general welfare, and the preservation of liberty. It reflects the principles upon which the United States was founded and serves as a guiding document for the nation's governance.

The Preamble to the U.S. Constitution

1) Who, according to the Preamble, is responsible for establishing the Constitution?

2)

Preview

Become a member to unlock
unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

3) What is the primary purpose of the Preamble of the United States Constitution?

- a) to list the names of the Founding Fathers
- b) to provide a detailed explanation of the Constitution's articles
- c) to outline the goals and purposes of the Constitution
- d) to describe the history of the United States

The Preamble to the U.S. Constitution

- 4) Why did the Preamble mention the need to "form a more perfect Union"?
- a) to emphasize the importance of strong military alliances
 - b) to acknowledge the flaws in the previous system of government
 - c) to highlight the desire for economic prosperity
 - d) to promote international diplomacy

5)

Preview

Become a member to unlock
unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com