

Making Predictions

Read each scenario and choose the likeliest prediction.

- 1) Edmund and his brother Peter were playing baseball in their backyard on a sunny day. Peter was poised to throw the ball. Edmund had his bat ready to hit the ball. Peter pitched it hard, and Edmund whacked the ball. The ball flew toward the upstairs window. What happened?

- a) The ball smashed the window b) The ball came back to Edmund.

2)

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

3)

- a) Lindsey went to the theater. b) Lindsey got back inside her house.
c) Lindsey hung out with her friends at the beach. d) Lindsey reached her school.

- 4) Miss Gale reminded the class about the science project that is due on Monday before closing for the weekend. Over the weekend, Riley researched and worked on his project while Roger played all day. It was Monday morning, and they both left to school. What happened to John?

- a) He was appreciated by Miss Gale. b) He went to school without the project.
c) He stole Roger's project. d) He fell sick.