Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

Douglas couldn't wait to go to the toy store. He was going to buy the latest game for his video device. It was the newest and most expensive, so it had to be good! When Mom got home from work, they loaded into the car and headed to the store. Douglas browsed the games. The newest game was on the front shelf, and it looked great. Another game was to the side. It cost less, and the cover wasn't as pretty. Douglas grabbed the newer game and used all his birthday money to buy it. That night, he
