

Proverbs

Read the story and answer the questions that follow.

Albert the Ant carried small pieces of dirt from one side of the burrow to the other. He diligently dug out a small tunnel to add space to the anthill. Allan and Avery lived in the anthill, too. Would they help? Albert asked, but they said they were busy. Albert went about his task. Anna the Ant stopped by. She had only a few minutes. When Albert finished for the night, his dad asked him if any of his friends had helped him do his work. Albert thought about it. Which of the ants had helped him? It was
