

The Eco-Adventure

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

earth mea cha into them in special bins so they can be turned into new things.

Lisa, Luke, and Lucas learn that even little actions can make a big difference for our planet.

- Doris Reynolds

The Eco-Adventure

1) What does "reduce" mean?

- a) To use more stuff
- b) To reuse the same stuff
- c) To use less stuff

2) What can you do to reuse things?

- a)
- b)
- c)

3) What can you do to recycle?

- a)
- b)
- c)

4) What can you do to reduce?

a)

- b) Throw everything away
- c) Buy lots of new toys

5) Which of these can be recycled?

- a) Used paper towels
- b) Empty soda cans
- c) Fresh fruit

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

The Eco-Adventure

6) Match to identify the following as examples of “reducing”, “reusing”, or “recycling”.

Reduce

Using both sides of a piece of paper

Putting empty cans and bottles in a recycling bin

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com