Once the fire was roaring, Ashlyn helped set up a tent. Then the group took a hike through the woods nearby. Ashlyn pointed out a berry bush, and she smiled when another scout pointed out a family of deer in a meadow.

A sound of rushing water came from ahead. Ashlyn peered down the path for a better look. As they followed the path, a giant waterfall came into view. The water flowed from the top of a cliff. It cascaded into a pool below.

Ashlyn gasped in delight.

Soon, they returned to their campsite. The counselor told the scouts about their activities for the next day, which would include paddling onto the lake in a canoe. Ashlyn glanced at the smooth water of the lake. She was excited for tomorrow!
