

Sequencing

Last week, Ms. Carter made delicious dishes for dinner every school night. Here's a passage showing the timeline.

On Monday, Ms. Carter followed her mother's recipe and made lasagna. She served ice cream for dessert. Tuesday's dinner was meatloaf and a green salad. Apple pie from the diner nearby was served for dessert. Ms. Carter made chicken pot pie for dinner and a decadent chocolate mousse for dessert on Wednesday. She served spaghetti and meatballs on Thursday and followed it up with peach cobbler for dessert. Spicy fish tacos were served on Friday, along with a fruit trifle from the neighbor.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____
- 4) What was for dinner on the third school night of the week?

- 5) Name what Ms. Carter made for dinner and dessert three days after Monday.

- 6) What was the dessert on Friday, and who gave it to Ms. Carter?

Sequencing

Cut and glue the dishes next to the correct days based on the timeline of the dishes made by Ms. Carter for dinners during the school week.

Monday

Preview

Become a member to unlock
unrestricted access to both printable
and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Fish tacos, a fruit trifle

Spaghetti and meatballs, peach cobbler

Chicken pot pie, a chocolate mousse

Lasagna, ice cream

Meatloaf and a green salad, apple pie