

Sequencing

The paragraphs in the story below are jumbled up. Sequence the story by writing the appropriate numbers to tell which paragraph comes first, which second, and so on.

Millie spread out the wrapping paper and placed the box in the middle. She brought two sides of the paper up and across the

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

She draped some satin ribbon across the box. It took a while, but she made a large bow on top. Millie couldn't believe how pretty the present looked!

She folded down the top flap of one end on to the box. This created little paper wings, which she flattened against the box. Next, she folded the remaining flap.