

Similes

Underline the similes in the poem. Write the similes down and use them in sentences.

My Special Dog

By Katie Clark

You're as soft as a feather.

You're as strong as a stone.

You're a friend in all weather,

While gnawing on a bone.

You comfort like a blanket.

You play games like a clown.

You're as loving as a hug,

Turning frowns upside down.

You're clever like a schoolbook,

As you heel and you jog.

I will love you forever.

You're my own special dog.

Similes

1)

2)

3)

4)

5)

6)

7)

8)
