Read the passage and color the two-syllable words yellow, and the three-syllable words blue.

It was a special day, the second Sunday of May. It was Mother's Day! Gregory woke up early to surprise his mother. He had saved his allowance for months to buy her some flowers and a box of chocolate truffles.

Gregory had bought the loaves at the bakery for a few days. Beautiful loaves of white bread and chocolate truffles.

To top the bread, Gregory used the ingredients he had saved. He included the flour and the eggs.

Gregory had a batter and a pancake.

With the cone machine on, Gregory chopped up the bacon in a pan. He then added some butter and scrambled the eggs. Finally, he placed all the dishes on a tray, grabbed the truffles and flowers and went to wake Mom. Her reaction was everything he had hoped for and more!
