

Syllables

---

Read the passage and color the two-syllable words yellow, and the three-syllable words blue.

Our family decided to go camping one weekend. We left on Saturday morning, with our camping gear and other supplies packed safely. The car was just big enough for Mom, Dad, my sister and I. We chose a camping ground near Lake Jefferson.

It was a fun weekend. We enjoyed the moment when we had to hike to the lake, and the quick

When we fell, Dad and I had a Mexican game

The r power scave

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

Our last evening around the campfire, we toasted marshmallows, grilled watermelon, and made banana boats. We left soon after, so that we could reach home before it was too late. It was a fun weekend that I would remember for a long time.