

Syllables

---

Read the passage and color the two-syllable words yellow, and the three-syllable words blue.

On a bright Saturday morning, Madison and her big brother, Tyler, drove to the amusement park. They had planned this little trip a week ago. Madison had a fear of heights, but she was still excited to go on all the rides. They parked their car in the open lot, bought their tickets, and got in line.

Madison was a bit nervous, but she finally shut her eyes and took a deep breath. It was a bit scary, but she was still excited to go on all the rides.

Next, they rode the roller coaster. It was a bit scary, but she was still excited to go on all the rides.

When they got to the Ferris wheel, Madison was a bit nervous, but she finally shut her eyes and took a deep breath. It was a bit scary, but she was still excited to go on all the rides.

Preview

Become a member to unlock unrestricted access to both printable and online worksheets.

www.tutoringhour.com

It was almost sundown when they went on the Ferris wheel. It went so high up that Madison could see the whole town. Before they left the park, they also rode the bumper cars. Exhausted but with big smiles on their faces, they drove back home.