

Transition Words

---

Underline the cause-or-effect transition word/phrase in each sentence.

- 1) We took the ferry because the children hadn't traveled in one before.
- 2) Martin needed help with math and physics, so we got him an expert tutor.
- 3) We went to the beach since it was sunny and bright.
- 4) The school remained closed for two days due to snow.
- 5) We ordered food as we were too tired to cook.
- 6) The discussion is not over yet, and therefore, Dad will be late for lunch.
- 7) There was no money in the account. Consequently, the transaction failed.
- 8) Mr. Carter was widely traveled; as a result, it was fun listening to him.
- 9) There are fewer students this year. Thus, there will be fewer buses.
- 10) The cost of flying abroad has risen sharply. Accordingly, we are not traveling this year.