

Transportation

Fill in the blanks to complete the passage about vehicles.

Look around you when you're out and about. You'll surely spot a vehicle or two. The _____  that gets children to school on time, the _____  that Mom and Dad take to work, and the ship that travels across the ocean.

A vehicle is used to move people and things from one place to another.

Other vehicles are used to transport goods.

A _____  is used to lock a door.

_____  through the water.

Many vehicles have _____  on which they move. They also have an _____  that gives them the energy to move. Some vehicles may burn _____  to make their engines work, while others use _____ . A _____  is a vehicle that needs no fuel or electricity. It runs on the power of your legs!